Weekend Overview

Each year, the Town of Seneca Falls hosts a weekend celebration commemorating the 1848 Seneca Falls Convention. 2023 is the 175th anniversary of the convention as well as the 100th anniversary of the introduction of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA). To commemorate these historic anniversaries, multiple organizations are coming together to host a 3-day weekend of events.

Organizations: Central New York NOW, Eleanor's Legacy, Equal Rights Action, National Women's Hall of Fame, NYPENN Girl Scouts, Rochester New York NOW, Seneca Falls Convention Days Committee, Seneca Falls Historical Society, University of Rochester, Women Institute for Leadership and Learning, Women March in Seneca Falls, and Women's Rights National Historical Park.

Convention Days Event Details

- The National Women's Hall of Fame's outdoor celebration will include live music, food, and women's organization vendors in their parking lot, 1 Canal St.
- Seneca Falls Heritage Express is a train ride from Seneca Falls to Auburn and back. Hosted by the Seneca Falls Historical Society.
- Immerse yourself with the Women's Rights National Historical Park's living history, historic baseball game, and expert speakers!
- Celebrate with the town of Seneca Falls at their luncheon at the Gould Hotel!

ERA Centennial Event Details

Purpose: The ERA Centennial Convention seeks to mark the important historic milestone of the ERA Centennial, push for finalizing the federal ERA, and launch the grassroots fight for a New York State-level ERA ballot initiative. The goal is to mark the century-long fight to get the ERA into the Constitution.

Objective: The event will be focused on cultivating the next generation of ERA activists and helping them see their place in history as Constitution makers.

For more information on the ERA Centennial Convention, visit "ERA Centennial Convention" on Eventbrite.com.
