FUNDRAISING TOOLKIT

Thank you for being a dedicated supporter of the National Women's Hall of Fame! Your contribution honors and celebrates the extraordinary achievements of women who have changed the world and will help us amplify women’s storied contributions with the first-ever national primetime broadcast of the Hall’s Induction Ceremony on public television.

Sharing these messages via your Facebook page, X (fka Twitter), Instagram, or LinkedIn, in addition to your own personal contact list, is how we build support for the Hall’s mission to elevate women’s voices, equip and empower changemakers, and advance gender equity. Leveraging your networks is how we will meet – and hopefully exceed – our fundraising target to bring the primetime broadcast of the Induction Ceremony to air and expand the Hall’s community-led programming.

Here’s a toolkit to help you spread the word about the importance and urgency of donating to the Hall.
Subject: Join Me in Honoring Extraordinary Women with the National Women’s Hall of Fame

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this message finds you in good health and high spirits. I wanted to take a moment to share something that holds great significance to me and that I believe will resonate with you as well.

I am writing to you as a proud supporter of the National Women’s Hall of Fame, the nation’s first and oldest nonprofit dedicated to honoring distinguished American women. These women, from various walks of life, have shaped our world through their courage, intellect, and unyielding determination.

The National Women’s Hall of Fame serves as a beacon of inspiration, reminding us of the profound impact women have had and continue to have on our lives and on society. It stands as a testament to the countless women who have broken barriers, shattered glass ceilings, and paved the way for generations to come.

The National Women’s Hall of Fame has a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to amplify women’s stories with the first-ever national primetime broadcast of the Hall’s Induction Ceremony on public television. The Induction Ceremony would reach tens of millions of households around the nation and inspire the next generation of leaders and history-makers.

However, to ensure that the legacies of great women endure, and that their stories continue to inspire future leaders, the Hall requires support from individuals like you and me — and we must act quickly. Your contribution, no matter the size, will make a difference. It will not only bring the national broadcast to life, allowing us to engage and inspire upwards of 80 million individuals, but also support further opportunities to launch Inductee-focused programs and educational activities for communities around the country.

To make a donation, please visit https://bitly.ws/Ya2K. Please consider forwarding this email to your friends and family to get the word out.

Thank you for taking the time to consider this important cause. Together, we can ensure that the National Women’s Hall of Fame remains a beacon of hope and empowerment for generations to come.

Warm regards,
